New Delhi, the 22nd March 1958.

G.S.R. 159.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 37 of the Central Excises and Salt Act, 1944 (1 of 1944), as in force in India and as applied to the State of Pondicherry, the Central Government hereby makes the following further amendment in the Central Excise Rules, 1944, namely:—

In the said rules, rule 9A shall be renumbered as sub-rule (1) thereof, and after sub-rule (1), the following sub-rule shall be inserted, namely:—

“(2) Where any person who has removed excisable goods for export in bond fails to export or to furnish proof of such export to the satisfaction of the Collector or applies to the Collector for permission to divert the goods for home consumption, the rate of duty leviable and the tariff valuation (if any) in respect of such goods shall be the rate and valuation in force on the date on which the duty is paid.”

[No. 33/58.]

CUSTOMS

G.S.R. 160.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 43B of the Sea Customs Act, 1878 (8 of 1878), as in force in India and as applied to the State of Pondicherry, the Central Government hereby directs that a drawback shall be allowed in accordance with, and subject to, the provisions of the said section and any rules made thereunder, in respect of duty-paid imported materials used in the manufacture of toilet products, that is to say, soap, shampoo and perfumed oil, when such toilet products are manufactured in, and exported from, India or the State of Pondicherry, or shipped as stores for use on board a ship proceeding to a foreign port.

[No. 91/58.]

CUSTOMS AND CENTRAL EXCISE

G.S.R. 161.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (3) of section 43-B of the Sea Customs Act, 1878 (8 of 1878), and section 37 of the Central Excises and Salt Act, 1944 (1 of 1944), as in force in India and as applied to the State of Pondicherry, the Central Government hereby makes the following rules, the same having been previously published as required by sub-section (3) of the said section 43-B of the Sea Customs Act, 1878 (8 of 1878), namely:—

THE CUSTOMS AND CENTRAL EXCISE DUTIES DRAWBACK (TOILET PRODUCTS) RULES 1958.

1. Short title.—These rules may be called the Customs and Central Excise Duties Drawback (Toilet Products) Rules, 1958.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,—

- (a) "Collector" means the Collector of Central Excise in whose jurisdiction the exporter's manufacturing premises are situated;
- (b) "drawback" means drawback of customs duty and includes rebate of excise duty;
- (c) "excisable articles" means vegetable non-essential oils and paper on which excise duty has been paid;
- (d) "exporter" means the person who exports the goods manufactured by him and who is registered as such under rule 5 of these rules;
- (e) "Form" means a Form appended to these rules;
- (f) "toilet products" means soap, and perfumed oil manufactured in India or the State of Pondicherry and in the manufacture of which imported materials or excisable articles or both have been used;
- (g) "imported material" means oil, chemicals, paper and perfumery imported into India or the State of Pondicherry on payment of customs duty.

3. Toilet products in respect of which draw-back may be allowed.—Subject to the provisions of the Sea Customs Act, 1878 (8 of 1878), and the Central Excises and Salt Act, 1944 (1 of 1944), and of these rules, and subject also to such of the provisions of the Central Excise Rules, 1944, as may be applicable in this behalf, a drawback shall be allowed in respect of the following, on the export of the toilet products from India or the State of Pondicherry, or their shipment as stores for use on board a ship proceeding to a foreign port;

- (a) imported material used in the manufacture of the toilet products;
- (b) excisable articles used in the manufacture of the toilet products;
- (c) in the case of soap, the excise duty paid thereon;

Provided that no drawback under these rules shall be admissible in respect of soap exported in accordance with the provisions of rule 12, 13, or 14 of the Central Excise Rules, 1944.

4. Rate of drawback.—(i) The rate of drawback admissible under these rules on the shipment of the toilet products shall be the average customs and excise duty paid respectively on the imported material and on the excisable articles, used in the manufacture of the toilet products as well as the excise duty, if any, paid on the toilet products themselves.

(ii) Such rate shall be determined by the Central Government (hereinafter referred to in this sub-rule as the Government) at such intervals as the Government may consider necessary on the basis of the information furnished by the manufacturers of the toilet products, and verified by the Government in respect of the said duties paid during such period as in the opinion of the Government is relevant for the purpose.

5. The exporter to get himself registered.—The exporter of the toilet products shall apply in writing in Form A for registration to the Collector, and shall similarly get the registration renewed in the month of January every year.

6. Declaration on shipping bill on production of invoice.—The exporter shall, at the time of the shipment of the toilet products,

(a) make a declaration on the relative shipping bill that a claim for drawback is being made under these Rules; and

(b) furnish the Customs Collector with a copy of the shipment invoice or any other document giving particulars of the description, quantity and value of the toilet products under shipment.

7. Procedure for grant of drawback.—In order to obtain payment of drawback, the exporter shall prepare an application in Form B, and present it to the Collector within six months of the date of entry of the toilet products for shipment, together with the bill of lading or shipping bill duly certified by an officer of Customs to the effect that the toilet products have in fact been exported.

8. The Collector may disallow drawback.—If the toilet products are not exported, or the proof of export is not furnished to the satisfaction of the Collector, in the prescribed manner and within the prescribed time-limit, the Collector may in his discretion disallow the whole or any part of the claim for the drawback.

9. Powers of the Collector.—For the purpose of enforcing these rules, the Collector may require the exporter to produce any books of accounts or other documents relating to the proportion and quantity of the imported material or excisable articles used in the manufacture of the toilet products and the duty paid thereon.

10. Access to manufactory.—The exporter of the toilet products in respect of which a drawback is claimed under these rules shall give access to every part of the manufactory to any officer of the Central Government specially authorised in this behalf by the Collector or the Central Board of Revenue, to enable the officer so authorised to inspect the processes of manufacture and to verify by actual check or otherwise the statements made in support of the claim for drawback.

A. L. HANDA, Under Secy.

New Delhi, the 12th March 1958

G.S.R. 170.—Whereas the Central Government is of opinion that a provident Fund Scheme should be framed under the Employees' Provident Funds Act, 1952 (19 of 1952), in respect of the employees of the biscuit making industry including composite units making biscuits and products such as bread, confectionery and milk and milk powder;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 4 of the said Act, the Central Government hereby directs that with effect from the 30th April 1958 the said industry shall be added to Schedule I of the said Act.
